

We are enjoying peaceful evenings at home as a family without the constant interruptions of telemarketers. The Indiana no call program should be praised not changed or watered down. Please keep it going!
Thank you.